The Bruins have returned two of their top five main contributors in the lineup and their ace from the 2022 season, a year in which UCLA finished 51-10 overall with a seventh consecutive trip to the Women's College World Series. Back in 2023 is pitcher Megan Faraimo and utilities Maya Brady and Savannah Pola.

The program has also returned outfielder Kelli Godin, second baseman Anna Vines and catcher Alyssa Garcia.

Brady, Faraimo and Sharlize Palacios were all named to USA Softball's Collegiate Player of the Year Top 50 Watch List, as announced by the organization on Jan. 25. Seven total Bruins cracked D1Softball's Preseason Top 100 Players List: No. 7 Megan Faraimo, No. 27 Sharlize Palacios, No. 31 Maya Brady, No. 59 Janelle Meoño, No. 65 Brooke Yanez and No. 100 Megan Grant. Grant was the only freshman on the list of 100 players.

Faraimo returns to the Bruins after receiving Pac-12 Pitcher of the Year honors for the first time in her career in 2022.

"(Megan is) really focused and locked in," said the Shelly Carlin UCLA Head Softball Coach Kelly Inouye-Perez. "I think she's on a clear mission to do whatever she can to help her team be the last team standing in 2023. As a coach, it's awesome to know that's not just words but you can feel it. The fact she'll have a staff around her will let her be her best in big moments rather than being the one the entire year."

Brady enters her redshirt junior season following a heroic performance at the Women's College World Series which earned her All-WCWS Tournament Team honors. On June 6, Brady powered two home runs versus No. 1 Oklahoma to force an if-necessary game later that day.

The Bruins had a core group seniors graduate from the program following the end of the 2022 season. Briana Perez, who tied UCLA's record for games played and became the fourth member of UCLA's 300 Hits Club, graduated. Delanie Wisz, who led the Bruins with a .405 batting average and was their most consistent bat in the lineup last season, is now coaching at San Diego State as a volunteer assistant. Kinsley Washington, who knocked in the game-winning run to win UCLA's 12th NCAA Championship in 2019, earned her master's degree. And Holly Azevedo, a 21-game winner in 2022, is no longer in the rotation.

UCLA will have help from its influx of freshmen and transfers to make up for the absences. The Bruins have added seven freshmen and four transfers for 11 total newcomers and 28 total players. Both marks are the most ever for the UCLA softball program. The freshmen include infielders Megan Grant, Rylee Pinedo, Ramsey Suarez Jordan Woolery, utility Kennedy Powell, catcher Alexis Ramirez and pitcher Taylor Tinsley. The transfers include a pair from Arizona – Janelle Meoño and Sharlize Palacios – and a pair from Oregon in Brooke Yanez and Rachel Cid.

Palacios spent the offseason as the starting catcher in several events for Team USA. At Arizona, she anchored the heart of the lineup and led the Wildcats to two Women's College World Series appearances. She is a two-time All-Pac-12 First Team honoree. Meoño was the 2021 Pac-12 Batting Champion with a .442 batting average, making her the third Bruin on the roster to earn that title (Aaliyah Jordan and Kelli Godin). The left-handed pitcher Yanez missed the 2022 season due to injury but was an NFCA Third Team All-American the year prior. She totaled a 31-7 record and 362 strikeouts in her career with the Ducks.

"The energy is just amazing," Inouye-Perez said. "The new Bruins have all brought great enthusiasm to the program. That's given the returners a boost of energy too. They're excited to be Bruins and they've embraced our culture."

The Bruins' talented freshman class was ranked No. 2 in the nation by Extra Inning Softball. Headlining the class are Megan Grant, Taylor Tinsley and Jordan Woolery. Grant starred for USA Softball in 2021, helping it to two gold medals at the WBSC U18 World Cup in Lima, Peru, and Junior Pan American Games in Barranquilla, Colombia. She prepped at Aragon High School in San Bruno, Calif., where she finished her senior season ranked as the No. 3 athlete across all sports in the Bay Area by SportsStars. Tinsley was ranked as the No. 1 pitcher and No. 2 overall recruit in her class by Softball America. She was a two-time winner of the Walton Tribune Athlete of the Year Award her sophomore and senior seasons.

As for expectations heading into the season, UCLA's mission and focus remains simple.

"I want to get this team to accomplish what they came together to do. A big part of that is being clear about who we are and how we get after it," Inouye-Perez said. "It's not about any opponent we play, it's about trying to be the best team that we can be. I'm excited about the opportunity to bring this group together. We have a lot of new Bruins and a lot of returning Bruins. We have a fire in our bellies."

CREDENTIALS

Admission to Easton Stadium's press box seating is by credential only. All credential requests should be made through UCLA softball's athletic communications contact Vinny Lavalsiti (vlavalsiti@athletics.ucla.edu). Credential requests for road games should be made, via email, with Vinny Lavalsiti. Additional information about media policies are available by visiting www.uclabruins.com/media.

CREDENTIAL PICKUP

Credentials can be claimed on the day of the game at the front gates of Easton Stadium. Media members should consult with Vinny Lavalsiti from the Athletic Communications Office in advance, for credential pickup.

MEDIA PARKING

Parking passes are distributed in a digital/electronic format. To secure a parking pass, contact the UCLA Athletic Communications Office at least two days in advance of the game. Media members will be encouraged to arrive early and park in the lot adjacent to Easton Stadium, in Lot 11 off Bellagio Drive. Lot 11 and Easton Stadium can be accessed off the 405 freeway (use the Sunset Blvd. exit, and proceed east). Upon arrival and parking in the lot, you will be prompted to input a coupon code into the nearest kiosk to access your free parking.

MEDIA ENTRANCE/SEATING

The stadium's media seating is limited. Should room be available in the press box, seating will be allowed on a first-come, first-serve basis with priority given to the media outlet who provides the most consistent coverage. Seating will be made available on the roof of the press box or to the right of the press box entrance.

MEDIA SERVICES

Media are encouraged to access all in-game statistics online. UCLA's Athletic Communications Office and the Pac-12 Conference utilizes the StatBroadcast.com website (available by visiting uclabruins.com). For special arrangements regarding Ethernet connection or phone line, media members should contact Vinny Lavalsiti in advance (email, vlavalsiti@athletics.ucla.edu). Media with questions about the UCLA softball program, ranging from player backstories to statistical research, should contact Vinny Lavalsiti.

PHOTOGRAPHY

UCLA's Athletic Communications Office will make every effort to include as many photographers as possible (stationed in the camera well behind the backstop). Please note, priority will be granted to media outlets working on assignment for a major news-gathering organization or wire service. UCLA Athletics may also be supplying photos with a pool photographer at select games. Photo credentials should be ordered in the same manner as media credentials. Freelance photographers may also be credentialed should they provide use of their photos for the UCLA Athletic Communications Office at no cost and do not require photo credit on UCLA softball's social media accounts.

POST-GAME PROCEDURE

Following a cooling-off period, head coach Kelly Inouye-Perez or another member of the UCLA coaching staff and select UCLA student-athletes will be available for interviews outside the Sharron Backus Clubhouse or in the coaches' office. Should UCLA host NCAA Tournament play, there will be a press conference inside the Sharron Backus Clubhouse (located to the west of the front gates to Easton Stadium). For any interviews with the visiting team, media members are encouraged to make prior arrangements with the athletic communications personnel from that institution.

WEEKDAY INTERVIEWS

Requests for coach and player interviews should be made to Vinny Lavalsiti in the Athletic Communications Office. Please give at least 48 hours notice. A concerted effort will be made to conduct these interviews in-person. Other options include a phone interview or ZOOM interview. UCLA's practices are closed to the media and public.

DIRECTIONS

Directions to UCLA and Easton Stadium: From Los Angeles International Airport, take Century Blvd. east to the San Diego Freeway (405). Take the 405 northbound to Sunset Blvd (approx. 13 miles). Continue east on Sunset, make a right on Bellagio Drive. Easton Stadium will be on your left-hand side of the road in roughly 300 feet. Parking passes can only be obtained through the UCLA Athletic Communications Office (digital format).

UCLA WEBSITE

All news releases, results and statistics are posted on UCLA's official website (uclabruins.com). The official website includes postgame video recaps, featured video items with student-athletes and links to UCLA's social media websites, including Twitter, Facebook and Instagram.

CONTACT INFORMATION

Vinny Lavalsiti is currently in his second season as the media contact for the UCLA softball program. All interview and credential requests should be directed to Vinny Lavalsiti (via email). Scott Markley serves as the UCLA athletic department's Senior Associate Athletic Director for Communications.

12 NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

UCLA's program has won a nation-leading 12 NCAA titles and 13 total national championships, including its 1978 AIAW title. The Bruins are the only program in the history of the sport to win an NCAA championship in all four decades since softball was adopted by the NCAA in 1982. UCLA was the first program to repeat NCAA titles in 1984 and 1985 and then was the first and only program to three-peat in 1988, 1989 and 1990. The Bruins have won consecutive titles on three different occasions.

Overall, the Bruins have played in 37 NCAA Tournaments and made 31 Women's College World Series appearances, which both rank No. 1 across the country. UCLA has posted an NCAA Tournament record of 233-64 (.785) and Women's College Series record of 103-41 (.715).

CONFERENCE HISTORY

Entering its 48th season of organized softball in 2023, UCLA has secured 16 regular-season conference titles (first Pac-12 Softball Tournament begins in 2023).

Two of those titles came in the Southern California Women's Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SCWIAC) in 1974 and 1975 when the Bruins were still under the umbrella of the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW). Two more titles came in the Western Collegiate Athletic Association (WCAA) in 1983 and 1984. The rest of the Bruins' conference titles belonged in what is known today as the Pac-12.

UCLA SOFTBALL'S HONDA AWARD HISTORY

The Collegiate Women's Sports Awards began in 1976 as the Broderick Awards, named after Tom Broderick. In 1985 when American Honda agreed to serve as sponsor, the name was changed to the Honda-Broderick Awards in transition and then became the Honda Awards. The award winner is to reflect "not only athletic achievement but also the ideals of team contribution, scholastic endeavor, school and community involvement and those personal characteristics as stated in the philosophy of the NCAA. The program includes 12 sports awards for the best female athlete in each of the 12 NCAA-sanctioned sports. The Honda Award winner for their respective sport is then named a finalist for the Honda Cup, signifying the Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year. UCLA leads all collegiate softball programs with 11 Honda Sport Award for Softball accolades and also leads all NCAA Division I women's athletic programs, in any sport, with four Honda Cup awards: Lisa Fernandez (1993), Natasha Watley (2003) and the only two-time winner in the award's history, Rachel Garcia (2019 and 2021).

UCLA'S WOMEN SPORTS & THE HONDA AWARD

Across its 13 varsity women's programs, UCLA has hauled in 31 separate Honda Sport Awards and six Honda Cups. UCLA softball owns four of those six Honda Cups and leads all of the Bruins' programs with 12 Honda Sport Awards. UCLA track and field's Jackie (Joyner) Kersee and UCLA women's basketball's Ann Meyers Drysdale own the two other Honda Cups. UCLA gymnastics ranks second in the department with five Honda Sport Awards.

DEBBIE DOOM (1984)

Debbie Doom was the program's first Honda Award winner in 1984 after posting a 24-3 record and career-best 0.10 earned run average and 282 strikeouts. Doom secured UCLA's second NCAA title that season with a 13-inning shutout over Texas A&M in the championship game.

LISA LONGAKER (1988 & 1990)

Lisa Longaker earned her first Honda Award in 1988 following a 31-win season which, at the time, set a program record which would not be eclipsed until Lisa Fernandez in 1993. Lisa Longaker became the first two-time Honda Award winner and secured UCLA's third-straight award and NCAA Championship in 1990.

JANICE PARKS (1989)

Janice Parks took home the Honda Award the next year in 1989 after hitting a career-best .426 batting average over 52 games played and helping UCLA to back-to-back NCAA titles.

LISA FERNANDEZ (1991, 1992, 1993)

Fernandez three-peated the Honda Award from 1991 to 1993 to bring UCLA's running total to seven. In 1993, Fernandez won the program's first Honda Cup after posting a 33-3 record and 0.25 earned run average with a career-best 348 strikeouts.

JENNIFER BRUNDAGE (1995)

Jennifer Brundage became the fifth Bruin to win the Honda Award in 1995 after leading the country with a .518 batting average.

NATASHA WATLEY (2003)

Watley won the Honda Award and Honda Cup in 2003 following her third 200-hit season and a .481 batting average that helped the Bruins to the 2003 NCAA Championship.

RACHEL GARCIA (2018, 2019, 2021)

Garcia won three Honda Awards (2018, 2019, 2021) and became the only player in NCAA history to win the Honda Cup twice (2019, 2021). In 2019, Garcia was the winning pitcher in both WCWS final games against Oklahoma, pitching a total of 36 innings in a span of six days and five games to bring home the Bruins' 12th NCAA title.

SHARRON BACKUS

UCLA's head coach from 1975-1996

On Jan. 6, 1997, the UCLA softball program entered a new era as Sharron Backus announced her retirement from coaching after 22 years of leading the Bruins. Considered by many a softball icon, Backus was the guiding force of the top softball program in the nation at UCLA. Owner of the second-best winning percentage in NCAA Division I softball history, Backus coached 22 seasons, posting an 854-173-3 (.831) lifetime record - all at UCLA. Included in that impressive 22-year slate was a 111-32 (.776) mark in postseason play.

Backus and the Bruins brought eight national championship trophies to Westwood (seven NCAA and one AIAW), including an unprecedented three in a row (1988, '89 and '90). The Backus era's trophy case also includes four second-place finishes and three third-place awards. Her UCLA teams played in the Women's College World Series 16 times, and after the Bruins joined the NCAA in 1982, Backus' squads made the WCWS every year they made the NCAA Tournament.

Including her award as the Pacific-10 Conference Coach of the Year in 1995, Backus earned the league's top honor four times in her final seven seasons, also winning in 1990, 1992 and 1993. In 1990, Backus was chosen Northwest Region Coach of the Year by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA). She was also selected as the Diamond National and Western Collegiate Athletic Association (WCAA) Coach of the Year in 1984 and 1985.

Backus has been enshrined in several Halls of Fame in recognition of her contributions as a player and coach. The Amateur Softball Association (ASA) Hall of Fame recognized her as one of the most honored players and coaches with induction in 1985. In 1992, the NFCA Hall of Fame welcomed Backus, honoring her tremendous successes in collegiate softball. In 1993, the Women's Sports Foundation Hall of Fame inducted Backus, spotlighting her enormous contributions to women's athletics. And in 2001, Backus was inducted into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame in her first year of eligibility.

The Bruin mentor is most noted for her ability to teach the fundamentals. In fact, UCLA did not commit a single error in WCWS play in the championship seasons of 1978, 1982 and 1988. Backus provided solid background in the handling of pitchers such as Debbie Doom, Tracy Compton, Lisa Longaker, Lisa Fernandez and DeeDee Weiman and hitters such as Fernandez, Janice Parks, Yvonne Gutierrez and Jennifer Brundage. Backus coached the first softball player to win the most prestigious honor in women's athletics, as Fernandez won the 1993 Honda-Broderick Cup, which recognized her as the most outstanding collegiate female athlete in all sports during the 1992-93 season.

UCLA's strength in fundamentals evolved from Backus' legendary ASA playing career. The Cal State Fullerton graduate was instrumental in seven ASA titles (1961, 1965 and 1971-75) and two international championships (1972 and 1974). A star shortstop, Backus was named to numerous ASA All-America teams during her playing career. She also played professional softball for the Connecticut Falcons from 1976-78, when the team won three World Championships.

A native of Anaheim and a resident of Fullerton, Backus continued her coaching duties in the professional ranks, coaching in the Women's Pro Softball League (WPSL). In 1998, she was named WPSL Coach of the Year after leading the Orlando Wahoos to the league championship. Backus also went on to serve as the Director of Player Personnel for the WPSL. She earned a bachelor's degree in Physical Education in 1969 from Cal State Fullerton, along with her teaching credential, which enabled her to teach at Western High School before coming to UCLA.

SUE ENQUIST

UCLA's head coach from 1997-2006

After spending 31 years as a player, assistant coach or head coach in the UCLA softball program, Sue Enquist announced her retirement from coaching on Sept. 26, 2006. Enquist spent 10 years as the Bruins' head coach, taking over that role for the 1997 season following the retirement of longtime mentor Sharron Backus. Enquist compiled a 484-119-1 (.802) from 1997-2006 and an overall mark of 887-175-1 (.835) in 18 seasons of coaching, serving as co-head coaches with Backus from 1989-96.

Enquist's .835 winning percentage puts her at the top of the NCAA charts for Division I head softball coaches. As co-head and head coach, Enquist led the Bruins to six national championships (1989, 1990, 1992, 1999, 2003, 2004) and seven Pacific-10 Conference titles. Before being named co-head coach, Enquist spent nine seasons (1980-88) as an assistant under Backus, with the Bruins posting a record of 352-85-3 (.803).

A three-time Pac-10 Coach of the Year (1995, 1999, 2006), Enquist was named National Coach of the Year by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) three times in 1992, 1995 and 2004. She also led coaching staffs that were named NFCA Regional Coaching Staff of the Year in 2000 and NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year in 2004. Enquist coached 60 All-Americans during her 18 seasons as head coach and seven Honda Award winners, including Natasha Watley, who became the second softball player in UCLA history in 2003 to earn the Honda-Broderick Cup, given to the most outstanding collegiate female athlete in all sports.

Enquist was either a player or coach on 11 UCLA national championship teams, including the program's first as a member of the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) in 1978 when she was the tournament's leading hitter. When the NCAA brought women's sports under its umbrella starting with the 1982 season, the Bruins won the inaugural championship. As one of eight softball coaches chosen to work with the U.S. National Team, Enquist was involved in the preparation of the gold-medal winning U.S. Olympic Team for the 1996 Summer Games in Atlanta, the inaugural Games for softball as an Olympic sport.

After graduating from San Clemente High School in December of 1974, Enquist went on to play four seasons for Backus from 1975-78. Enquist became the prototypical player for Bruin softball in terms of attitude, desire and will to win. UCLA's first softball All-American, Enquist led the Bruins in batting average and doubles three times, triples twice and homers and runs batted in once. A three-time All-Region selection, Enquist still stands fourth on UCLA's all-time list with a .401 career batting average. On April 29, 2000, Enquist's No. 6 jersey was immortalized when it became the third number in Bruin softball history to be retired.

A three-time ASA All-American for the Raybestos Brakettes, Enquist helped lead them to four ASA National Championships (1976-78, '80). She also enjoyed success as a player at the international level, earning gold medals at three National Sports Festivals, the 1978 World Championships and the '79 Pan American Games.

Away from the field, Enquist has received numerous honors, including induction into five Halls of Fame. In 1993, she became the first softball player inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame. In 2000, Enquist was enshrined into the Capistrano Unified School District Hall of Fame, and in 2006, she was inducted into the NFCA Hall of Fame. In June of 2008, Enquist was inducted into the International Women's Sports Hall of Fame. Seven years later, she was enshrined into the ASA Hall of Fame. Enquist was recognized with the 2004 C. Vivian Stringer Coaching Award by the United States Sports Academy. The award pays tribute to those who have made significant contributions to sports and is named in honor of C. Vivian Stringer, the Women's Basketball Hall of Famer who is the only coach to take three different schools to the Final Four.

Enquist earned her bachelor's degree in kinesiology from UCLA in 1980. A native of San Clemente, Enquist surfed professionally from 1979-1981 and continues to be an avid surfer. She currently resides in Huntington Beach, Calif.

DEEP COACHING ROOTS

UCLA softball's coaching core has remained intact since the inception of the program in 1975. The nexus of the Bruin coaching tree includes Sharron Backus, Sue Enquist, Kelly Inouye-Perez, Lisa Fernandez and Kirk Walker. With Enquist, Inouye-Perez and Fernandez all playing under Backus and Walker getting his start as a graduate assistant under Backus in 1984, all five coaches are inextricably connected to the program's beginning. This is one of the reasons for UCLA's renown strength in culture.

BRUINS IN THE COACHING RANKS

A number of Bruins have accepted assistant and head coaching roles since graduating from UCLA. Currently, there are five Bruins serving head coaching positions and seven in a variety of assistant roles. Most recently, Rachel Garcia ('21) accepted a position as a pitching coach at UC San Diego while Delanie Wisz ('22) is in her first year as a volunteer assistant for Stacey Nuveman ('02) at San Diego State. Three former Bruins stepped down from coaching roles the past two seasons: Megan Langenfeld (Oregon assistant) to start her family, Allexis Bennett (Utah assistant) and Bubba Nickles (UCLA graduate assistant) to play professionally for the Tokyo Red Terriers.

BRUINS SERVING BRUINS

Three Bruin head coaches have employed UCLA softball graduates in assistant roles: Head Coach Claire Sua-Amundson ('05) at Cal State East Bay hired Sam Duran ('15), Head Coach Stacey Nuveman hired both Rachel Garcia and Delanie Wisz to volunteer roles at San Diego State and Head Coach Tairia (Mims) Flowers ('05) hired Mysha Sataraka ('16) as an assistant at Loyola Marymount.

Four years prior to the start of the NCAA, UCLA brought home its first national title in 1978 under the umbrella of the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW). After recording just 44 wins in their first three years of existence, the Bruins went 31-3 in 1978, starting and finishing the season strong with victories in 14 of their first 15 and 17 of their last 18. During the regular season, UCLA went 22-2, outscoring its opponents 101-17.

n her last season in her #6 UCLA uniform, future Hall of Fame coach Sue Enquist led the Bruins in hitting with a .391 average. The All-American also finished first on the squad with seven doubles and tied for the team lead with two homers. Sophomore Kathy Maurice, an All-Region honoree, added seven triples and also belted two homers. In all, five Bruins earned All-Region honors in 1978, with Enquist and Maurice joined by senior Lisa Richardson, junior Janice Wright and sophomore Gail Edson. Richardson and freshman Jan Jeffers keyed UCLA's success in the circle, as the Bruins posted a team ERA of 0.30. Richardson led the team with a 0.19 ERA and 16 wins, while Jeffers has a 15-3 mark, a 0.43 ERA and a team-leading 91 strikeouts.

In the postseason, UCLA won its first three at Western Regionals, but all were 1-0 games with a pair going extra innings. The 28 innings in three days caught up to the Bruins on Championship Day against Cal Poly Pomona, losing 6-5 in the first contest. In game two in yet another 1-0 game, the Bruins advanced to the College World Series with an eight-inning victory over the Broncos. Cal Poly Pomona proved to be the Bruins' toughest test en route to the title, as UCLA outscored its opponents 18-0 in the season-ending tournament. In the final game against Northern Colorado, the Bruins prevailed 3-0 to claim their first national title. Jeffers earned three of the wins at Nationals, while Richardson picked up the other two. Enquist posted a tournament-best .421 batting average, while Edson hit .412 with a tournament-best nine RBI.

Having won the most NCAA softball championships, it was only fitting that the Bruins won the sport's first title under the umbrella of the National Collegiate Athletic Association in 1982. UCLA posted a 33-7-2 overall record, but were unable to get past Cal State Fullerton for the WCAA title (Western Collegiate Athletic Association), finishing second with a 15-4-1 mark.

First and foremost, pitching was the main catalyst for the Bruins, allowing just 18 runs for the entire season. UCLA gave up more than one run in a game just five times and 27 of its 33 victories came by shutout. During a 14-game winning streak from March 9 to April 16, the Bruins didn't allow a single run. All four pitchers on the UCLA staff appeared in between 10 and 15 games, keeping everybody fresh. A pair of freshmen keyed the Bruins' success, as All-American Tracy Compton had a team-low ERA of 0.21 and a 10-2 record, while Debbie Doom went 11-2 with a 0.31 ERA and a team-best 193 strikeouts. The upperclassmen did their part too. Senior Karen Andrews had 49 strikeouts, a 0.44 earned run average and a 6-2 record, while junior Lori Warkentin was 6-1 with a 0.25 ERA and 55 strikeouts. The pitching picked up the offensive attack, which went the entire season without a home run. Junior Dot Richardson led the Bruins with a .328 batting average en route to All-American honors, while All-American senior Gina Vecchione and sophomore Barbara Young tied for the team lead with 12 RBI.

In the postseason, the Bruins gave up just one run in seven victories to sweep through the competition. After dispatching Wyoming at their home Regional, the Bruins came out on top in four straight, one-run games at the Women's College World Series, including a 1-0 victory over Cal State Fullerton. In the championship game, Doom struck out 12 and despite getting just one hit, the Bruins scored twice in the eighth inning to defeat Fresno State 2-0. Doom was named the Most Valuable Player of the College World Series, pitching 41.2 of the Bruins' 45 innings and striking out 62.

Behind the outstanding pitching duo of Tracy Compton and Debbie Doom, the 1984 Bruins won their third National Championship and their second NCAA title in three seasons. Finishing with a record of 45-6-1, UCLA claimed the WCAA title with a 7-3 conference record. Bruin hurlers gave up just 20 runs during the season and half of those runs were unearned. After dropping the first game of the season, UCLA won 21 in a row, outscoring its opponents 59-4 during the streak and tossing 18 shutouts. In all, 39 of the Bruins' 45 victories came by way of the shutout.

Doom spelled just that for opposing hitters, as the junior went 24-3 with a 0.10 earned run average and 282 strikeouts. Compton was equally as good, going 20-3 with a 0.29 ERA and 159 strikeouts. Both pitchers received All-American honors, two of four Bruins to earn the accolade that season. The other two All-Americans were on the hitting side. Freshman Tricia Mang led the team with a .376 average, seven home runs and 19 runs batted in. Senior Sheila Cornell also hit above .300 at .309, belting two homers and drawing 26 walks, almost three times as many as the next closest player.

UCLA swept past Arizona State in its home Regional, shutting out the Sun Devils in both games to advance to the Women's College World Series. After dispatching Utah State and Northwestern, the Bruins dropped their first game of the tournament, 2-0 to defending champion Texas A&M. UCLA rebounded with a 1-0 blanking of Nebraska to reach the final, but would need to beat Texas A&M twice to claim the championship. In game one, Mang drove in Mary Ricks for the contest's only run to take down the Aggies 1-0 and force a winner-take-all title matchup. Doom was in command in the circle, striking out 15 in the championship game. But it wasn't until the bottom of the 13th inning when the game was settled, as Mang hit a one-out homer to left field to give the Bruins the championship. Doom, Mang, Leslie Rover and Jennifer Simm were named to the All-Tournament Team.

Another extra-inning game and another walk-off win gave the Bruins back-to-back NCAA Championships in 1985. Recording its third-straight, 40-win season, UCLA began the year with 12 straight triumphs, and after its first setback of the year, reeled off another 11 victories in a row. The Bruins didn't allow more than three runs in a game and gave up more than one just five times.

As was the case during their 1984 championship run, it was the two-headed pitching monster of seniors Tracy Compton and Debbie Doom that propelled the Bruins. Terrorizing opposing hitters since their freshmen seasons, the duo combined for a 0.18 ERA and 406 strikeouts. Compton led the nation and posted the second-best ERA in NCAA history at 0.08, giving up only two earned runs in 167 1/3 innings while striking out 172. She won 20 games, as did Doom, who struck out 232 with a 0.27 ERA in 180 innings. Both earned All-American accolades for the third straight season.

UCLA was on cruise control down the stretch, but faltered in its final three games of the regular season and then dropped the first game of Regional play to Pacific. The Bruins bounced back though with a pair of shutout victories over the Tigers to advance to the College World Series. UCLA never scored more than three runs in a game in the World Series, but didn't need to thanks to Compton and Doom's pitching.

However, the Bruins had to fight out of the loser's bracket following a second-game loss to Cal State Fullerton. With its backs against the wall, UCLA won the next three, including a revenge win over the Titans, and advanced to the title game against Nebraska. The Bruins jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the second behind an RBI single by Chris Olivie, but Nebraska tied it in the fourth. The game went to extras, and in the bottom of the ninth, Janet Pinneau drove home the game-winner on a single to plate Leslie Rover for the championship. Compton, Doom, Olivie and Rover were each named to the College World Series All-Tournament Team.

After falling in the championship game to Texas A&M a year prior, the UCLA softball team brought the NCAA softball title back to Westwood in 1988. In the second year of the Pacific-10 Conference's existence, the Bruins won the league title with a 15-3 record and posted a 53-8 overall mark. UCLA had three separate winning streaks of at least eight games, including 16 in a row from March 21 to April 4. During that streak, the Bruins outscored their opponents 88-6, posting 10 shutouts along the way.

UCLA had four players hit over .300 on the season, with freshman Lorraine Maynez's .337 average leading the way. She also topped the team with 10 doubles and seven triples and was second with 32 runs scored and 29 RBI. Junior Janice Parks led the power department with six homers and 40 RBI, hitting .322. Both players earned first-team All-American honors, with Parks' accolade being her second award in as many seasons. In the circle, sophomore All-American Lisa Longaker handled the bulk of the duties, posting a nation-best 0.30 earned run average, a 31-4 record and 240 strikeouts. Junior Samantha Ford backed up Longaker with an 18-4 mark and a 0.87 ERA.

The tournament began with a two-game sweep of Cal State Fullerton. For the first time, the WCWS was held in California, as the Bruins traveled north to Sunnyvale. UCLA won its first four games by a 16-2 margin to advance to the championship against Fresno State. Needing to win a pair from the Bruins, the Bulldogs took the first step with a 2-1 victory in game one, setting up a winner-take-all showdown for the title. As she had done all season, Longaker was masterful in the circle, hurling her 23rd shutout of the year. The Bruins gave her the only offense she needed in the fourth inning when Parks doubled in Stacy Sunny and Maynez to put UCLA on top 2-0. The Bruins added an insurance run in the seventh on a Shanna Flynn RBI single and won the sport's fifth national championship. Flynn, Longaker and Sunny were joined on the All-Tournament Team by Kerry Dienelt and Missy Phillips.

The Bruins made it back-to-back NCAA Championships in 1989, again besting Fresno State in the title game. Losing just four games during the season with 48 wins, the Bruins steamrolled through the Pac-10 with a league-best 18-2 record. UCLA had winning streaks of eight, 11 and 13, to go along with a season-ending streak of 16. The Bruins didn't allow a run until the ninth game of the season (88 innings) and had shutouts in their first 10 wins. In all, UCLA hurlers tossed 34 shutouts and gave up only 30 runs in 52 games.

In her first and only year in Westwood, freshman Tiffany Boyd led the nation with a 0.24 ERA, going 19-4 with 172 strikeouts in the circle. Although not qualifying for the NCAA's top spot, senior Samantha Ford led the staff with a 0.14 ERA and an 11-1 record, while junior Lisa Longaker was 18-1 with a 0.64 ERA. In a rarity for UCLA, no pitchers earned All-American honors, but two hitters did in senior Janice Parks and sophomore Shanna Flynn. Parks led the team with a .426 batting average, 36 runs batted in, seven triples, 10 doubles and two home runs, while Flynn hit .353 with 10 RBI and a team-best seven stolen bases. Although they hit only four home runs, the Bruins batted at a .288 clip and still manufactured 209 runs during the season.

Yet another postseason began with an easy two-game sweep in Regional play, this time of Long Beach State, as the Bruins traveled to Sunnyvale for the second straight College World Series held in Northern California. UCLA ran the table in the first four games of the World Series and had a familiar foe in Fresno State in the championship game. For the second straight year, the Bulldogs were outdueled by a Bruin hurler, as Boyd held Fresno State to three hits while striking out six in the title tilt. Parks had three hits in the final game and Lorraine Maynez's RBI single to score Julie Poulos in the third inning was the only run the Bruins needed for their sixth national title. Boyd, Maynez and Parks were each honored on the College World Series All-Tournament Team and were joined by Kerry Dienelt and Missy Phillips.

Another NCAA Championship. Another title-game victory over Fresno State. 1990 would end the same way the previous two seasons ended, as the Bruins won the sport's seventh national title. UCLA cracked the 60-win mark for the first time in school history with a 62-7 record and claimed its third straight Pac-10 title with a 17-2 mark. During a 22-game winning streak from March 31 to May 3, the Bruins outscored their opponents 68-3 and did not allow a run for 122 straight innings over 13 games.

As usual, it was the Bruin pitching that keyed the team's success, throwing 46 shutouts and posting a team ERA of 0.42. Four pitchers appeared in at least 15 games and three of them were freshmen, led by All-American Lisa Fernandez's 0.25 ERA and 11-1 record in just 83 innings. Newcomer Heather Compton went 18-1 with a 0.36 ERA and freshman DeeDee Weiman was 13-3 with a 0.64 ERA. The lone upperclassman of the staff was senior All-American Lisa Longaker, who led the team with 20 wins and had a 0.40 ERA. At the plate, sophomore All-American Yvonne Gutierrez had a team-best .384 average with 28 RBI, while Fernandez batted .310 with 22 RBI.

The Bruins beat Northern Iowa in Regional play and won their first four contests at the initial WCWS to be played in Oklahoma City. For the third straight season, Fresno State stood in the way of UCLA and a national title. Attempting to avenge their previous two losses, the Bulldogs won a 1-0 elimination game against the Bruins to force a winner-take-all final. UCLA jumped out to an early 1-0 lead with a first-inning run when Shanna Flynn scored on a wild pitch. Then in the third, a downpour caused the game to be suspended and resume the following afternoon. The Bruins came out the next day and immediately tacked on an insurance run in the bottom of the third when Kerry Dienelt drove in Michelle Montgomery. Compton took care of the rest, one-hitting FSU to finish off the three-peat. Dienelt, Fernandez, Flynn, Gutierrez and Longaker were named to the All-Tournament Team.

After Arizona spoiled UCLA's chances of four consecutive titles in 1991, the Bruins exacted revenge the following year with a victory against their Pac-10 rival. UCLA went 54-2, but both losses came at the hands of Arizona, allowing the Wildcats to end the Bruins' run of four straight Pac-10 titles. UCLA started the season with 33 straight wins, crushing opponents by a 166-17 margin. Following their first loss to Arizona, the Bruins ran off another 14-game win streak, including 10 shutouts. After falling in the regular-season finale against UA, UCLA finished the year with an undefeated postseason.

Junior Lisa Fernandez was masterful both in the circle and at the plate. She posted a nation-best ERA of 0.14 and was undefeated on the year at 29-0. The All-American and Honda Award winner was outstanding at the plate also, hitting .401 with 29 runs batted in. Not to be forgotten in the circle were junior hurlers DeeDee Weiman (11-1, 0.51 ERA) and Heather Compton (14-1, 0.67 ERA), who combined for 16 shutouts and 274 strikeouts. Senior All-American Yvonne Gutierrez was the powerful stick in the lineup, leading the club with a .406 average, 11 home runs and 58 RBI. Her 11 home runs tied for the NCAA lead. Fernandez and Gutierrez were joined on the All-American team by freshmen Joanne Alchin (.323 BA) and Kathi Evans (.363). As a team, the Bruins hit .304 and had five players bat above the .300 mark.

The Bruins skated past Utah in the Regional round and then blew away their first four opponents in the College World Series, winning by a combined score of 29-1 and recording two mercy-rule victories. In the championship game, it was a pitcher's duel between Fernandez and Arizona's Debby Day. The duo matched zeroes on the board until the bottom of the seventh inning. Gutierrez led off the frame with a single, moved over to second on a sacrifice by Jennifer Brundage and came home on Jenny Brewster's walk-off home run to left. Fernandez, who finished the year with 65 straight scoreless innings, was named to the All-Tournament Team along with Evans, Gutierrez and Kelly Inouye.

The winningest team in UCLA softball history set school records for runs scored (429), home runs (95) and total bases (1042), as the Bruins claimed the school's ninth national championship. UCLA posted a 63-6 record, defeating all its non-conference opponents while winning its sixth Pac-10 title with a 22-6 mark. The Bruins won a school-record 35 games to start the season, averaging more than 6.5 runs per game.

Recording one of the best individual years in the history of the sport, sophomore Stacey Nuveman shattered the UCLA single-season home run record and led the nation with 31 bombs and 91 runs batted in, also batting .446. Her 31 homers are the second-best, single-season total in NCAA history, while her 91 RBI are seventh-best. The national leaders didn't stop with Nuveman though, as junior Christie Ambrosi was atop the NCAA with 103 hits, posting a .429 average and a team-leading 25 stolen bases. Seven different players hit over .300 for the Bruins, who batted .339 as a team. In the circle, sophomore Courtney Dale and freshman Amanda Freed combined for 60 of the team's 63 victories. Dale was 33-1 with a 0.98 ERA and 218 strikeouts, while Freed was 27-4 with a 0.96 ERA and 187 strikeouts. A school-record six players were named All-Americans. Ambrosi, Dale, Freed and Nuveman were joined on the team by juniors Julie Adams and Julie Marshall.

The postseason was a clean sweep, going 4-0 in Regionals and 4-0 at the WCWS. UCLA outscored its foes 38-5 during Regionals, but things were considerably closer in the World Series, as all four contests were one-run games with two going extra innings. In the championship game against Washington, the Bruins jumped on the Huskies with two in the first and one in the second. Adams singled in a pair to put UCLA up 2-0 and Dale led off the second with a solo homer to make it a three-run game. UW rallied and had the tying run on base in the final inning, but Freed retired the final batter to make the Bruins victorious. Adams was named Most Outstanding Player and was joined on the All-Tournament Team by Ambrosi, Dale and Freed.

Behind one of the best pitching performances in College World Series championship game history, the Bruins won their 10th national title in 2003. Sporting a record of 54-7, UCLA had four first-team All-Americans in seniors Tairia Mims and Natasha Watley and juniors Keira Goerl and Claire Sua. On offense, five players hit above .300, led by Watley's .481 average. Leading the nation with 102 hits, Watley, who went on to win the Honda-Broderick Cup, added 10 home runs, 53 runs batted in and a team-best 35 stolen bases. Mims was the top power hitter with 22 homers and 70 RBI, hitting .449. Goerl led the nation in wins with 40, posting a 0.63 earned run average and 342 strikeouts.

After a perfect run through Regional play, UCLA went extra innings in its first College World Series game with California, but fell into the loser's bracket with a 7-3, 10-inning loss. Battling back, the Bruins beat Louisiana-Lafayette and Washington to advance to the semifinals against Texas. Needing to defeat the Longhorns twice to move on to the championship game, the Bruins shutout Texas 3-0 behind a two-hitter by Goerl. In the deciding matchup with Texas, the Bruins fell behind on an unearned run in the first and were down to their last out until a seventh-inning rally propelled them into the championship game. With two outs and Monique Mejia at second, Watley tied the game with a single and moved to second on the throw home. Caitlin Benyi completed the comeback with a single through the right side to win it 2-1. In the title game against California, Goerl didn't allow a hit through the first eight innings, but UCLA was also held in check on offense keeping the game scoreless. In the top of the ninth, Stephanie Ramos led off with a double and scored the go-ahead run on an RBI single by Toria Auelua. Still working on her no-hitter, Goerl retired the Golden Bears 1-2-3 in the ninth to send the Bruins to victory. Goerl was named Most Outstanding Player and her title game no-hitter was selected as one of the Top 25 Defining Moments in NCAA History during the NCAA's 100th anniversary in 2006. Mims and Watley also earned All-College World Series Tournament honors.

The Bruins made it back-to-back NCAA titles in 2004, hoisting the school's 11th national championship trophy in softball. UCLA went 47-9, winning its first 25 games and holding a 27-1 mark heading into league play. Despite struggling to a 12-8 record and a fourth-place finish in conference, the Bruins turned it on at the end of the regular season, winning their final five. Adding in a perfect 8-0 postseason record, UCLA won its final 13 games.

Sophomore All-American Caitlin Benyi led the country with 24 home runs, adding 43 runs batted in and a .379 batting average. Freshman Jodie Legaspi was second on the team with a .371 average, seven homers and 35 runs batted in, while senior Stephanie Ramos hit .356 with 12 homers and 31 RBI. In the circle, All-American Keira Goerl closed her career with an outstanding senior season, going 31-7 with a 1.02 ERA and 276 strikeouts. Freshman Lisa Dodd recorded a team-low earned run average of 0.79 with a 15-2 record in 115 2/3 innings.

After going a perfect 4-0 and outscoring their opponents 22-2 during Regional play, the Bruins continued their offensive prowess with an 8-2 victory against Stanford in the opening game of the College World Series. After downing LSU, the Bruins were taken to extra innings by Stanford in an elimination game for the Cardinal. Tied 1-1 going into the top of the 12th, UCLA scored twice on RBI doubles by Dodd and Ramos to go ahead 3-1. Goerl finished off Stanford in the bottom of the inning to send the Bruins to the title game against California for the second straight year. The Golden Bears jumped out to an early lead with a first-inning run and maintained it until the Bruins rallied in the fifth. Claire Sua led off with a homer and the Bruins continued the rally, putting runners at third and second with two outs. Kristen Dedmon came off the bench and got a big pinch-hit single up the middle to plate both runners and put UCLA up 3-1. Goerl held Cal off the scoreboard for the rest of the game to send the Bruins to the repeat title. Benyi, Dodd, Goerl and Legaspi were named to the All-WCWS Tournament Team.

After a six-year drought, the Bruins were back on top of the softball mountain in 2010, claiming the program's 11th NCAA Championship and 12th National Title. UCLA set school, single-season records in home runs (108), slugging percentage (.602), on base percentage (.432) and walks (244).

In the Women's College World Series opener against Florida, the game was tied at three after two innings when UCLA scored 13 unanswered to mercy rule the Gators 16-3. The 16 runs were the most ever for UCLA in a postseason contest. The Bruins broke the school record for home runs the next evening against Hawai'i in a 5-2 win with three more bombs. A two-run shot and a three-run jack against Georgia accounted for the only five runs the Bruins needed in a 5-2 win to put the Bruins in the Championship Series against Arizona.

Game one was an instant classic. After a two-out double in the bottom of the sixth by Monica Harrison gave the Bruins a 4-2 lead, the Wildcats rallied with three in the top of the seventh to go ahead 5-4. But with the help of a two-out Arizona miscue in the bottom of the seventh, UCLA scored the game-tying run on a Kaila Shull double to send the game into extra innings. The Wildcats left the bases loaded in the top of the eighth and the Bruins would take advantage in the bottom half, as Megan Langenfeld hit a 1-0 pitch over the center-field fence with two outs to give UCLA a thrilling 6-5 victory.

The next evening, Langenfeld and Andrea Harrison hit their WCWS-record fourth homers, as the Bruins routed Arizona 15-9 to finish off the championship run. Harrison also set a new WCWS mark with 11 RBI, while the Bruins' 14 homers were also a WCWS record. Langenfeld was named the WCWS' Most Outstanding Player, while Andrea Harrison and Samantha Camuso, who hit eight homers in the postseason, were also named to the All-Tournament Team. Along with their 108 home runs, the Bruins also set school, single-season records in slugging (.602), on base percentage (.432) and walks (244).

WCWS (Oklahoma City, Okla.)

May 30	beat Minnesota, 7-2
May 31	beat Arizona, 6-2
June 2	beat Washington, 3-0 (10)
June 3	beat Oklahoma, 16-3
June 4	beat Oklahoma, 5-4

In the most dramatic of ways, UCLA won its 13th National Championship, sweeping Oklahoma in the WCWS Championship Series. Even at four with two outs in the bottom of the seventh, Kinsley Washington blooped a single to left-center to score pinch-runner Jacqui Prober to send the Bruins to victory.

The Bruins played the first two weekends of the 2019 postseason at Easton Stadium, getting the Los Angeles Regional off to a great start against Weber State. Rachel Garcia retired the first 18 batters she faced before Holly Azevedo completed the combined no-hitter. In the winner's bracket game the next day, UCLA run-ruled Missouri, 9-1 in five innings. The Tigers exacted revenge the following day to force the if necessary game, but the Bruins would again win by mercy rule, 13-1 in five innings, to advance to Super Regionals. UCLA hosted James Madison, and after giving up a run in the first inning of game one, the Bruins outscored the Dukes 13-2 over the final 12 innings to move on to their fifth-consecutive Women's College World Series.

With a 5-0 record in Oklahoma City, the Bruins never trailed at the WCWS. UCLA got off to a great start against Minnesota thanks to a leadoff homer by Bubba Nickles, the first-ever leadoff homer in Bruin WCWS history. A three-run jack by Aaliyah Jordan capped off the scoring in a 7-2 win. The next evening against Pac-12 rival Arizona, the two teams were tied until the top of the sixth when Malia Quarles came off the bench with a pinch-hit home run. The Bruins poured it on with four more runs in the seventh in a 6-2 victory over the Wildcats. On Semifinal Sunday, UCLA and Washington were scoreless through 9 1/2 innings, as Garcia had struck out 16 in 10 frames. Then the National Player of the Year ended it with a walk-off, three-run homer to send the Bruins to the WCWS Championship Series against Oklahoma.

In game one of the Championship Series, the Bruins scored in six of their seven at-bats, hitting four home runs in a 16-3 rout. In game two, UCLA held leads of 2-0, 3-1 and 4-3 thanks to homers by Nickles, Briana Perez, Jordan and Brianna Tautalafua. But the Bruins found themselves tied in the bottom of the seventh when Washington and Prober came through with the heroics. Garcia was named the Most Outstanding Player of the WCWS and was joined on the All-Tournament Team by Jordan, Nickles and Washington.

BRUINS AT THE OLYMPICS

UCLA's softball team has been represented in each of the five Olympic Games sponsoring softball, most recently in 2020 when former UCLA standouts Ally Carda, Delaney Spaulding, Bubba Nickles and Rachel Garcia helped Team USA secure the silver medal at the Olympics in Tokyo. A total of 14 former UCLA players have competed for the U.S. Olympic Team in 1996, 2000, 2004, 2008 and 2020. Three Bruins – Joanne Alchin, Kerry Dienelt and Tanya Harding – have competed on the world's biggest stage for the Australian Olympic Team. UCLA's 17 Olympians and nine different gold medal winners rank as the most across all softball programs. The 17 Olympians have totaled 32 medals (16 gold, nine silver and seven bronze).

GOLD MEDAL WINNERS

Nine of UCLA's 17 Olympic athletes have captured the gold medal, all for Team USA: Christie Ambrosi, Jennifer Brundage, Sheila (Cornell) Douty, Lisa Fernandez, Tairia (Mims) Flowers, Amanda Freed, Stacey Nuveman, Dot Richardson, Natasha Watley and Christa Williams. in the 2008 Olympics in Beijing, Fernandez solidified her status as one of the sport's all-time greats by becoming the one of just four softball players to ever win three gold medals. Stacey Nuveman, Sheila Cornell, Christa Williams and Dot Richardson each have won two medals.

WELCOME TO OKLAHOMA CITY

The UCLA softball program has nine former players and coaches who have been inducted into the National Softball Hall of Fame in Oklahoma City, Okla. The most recent UCLA softball player to be inducted into the National Softball Hall of Fame was Debbie Doom in November 2022. The National Softball Hall of Fame and Museum has over 400 members with two categories of membership: players and non-players. A nominee needs 75 percent (nine votes) of the votes cast by the 12 member Hall of Fame Committee to be elected. Annual inductions are held at the USA Softball Annual Meeting.

Among the world's leading research universities, UCLA is best known for the breadth and quality of its academic, research, health care, cultural, continuing education and athletic programs. UCLA is a truly international university that offers a world of opportunity. Consistently ranked among the world's top-tier universities and powered by extensive resources, a renowned reputation and – most important – the will to make a real difference in the world, the result is clearly in the numbers.

UCLA has been the nation's the most applied-to university. For the fall of 2022, the university received more than 149,700 applications for a freshman class. Each year, UCLA admits students from over 90 countries and all 50 states. Nearly 96 percent of the school's freshmen live in university housing, and approximately 50 percent of UCLA's undergraduates receive some sort of financial assistance.

The top six most popular undergraduate majors include business economics, biology, psychology, political science, economics and psychobiology. The university offers over 125 majors and 80 minors. In addition, UCLA has nearly 150 graduate degree programs, including an extensive selection of management and health sciences options. There are 40 UCLA doctoral programs that rank among the top 10 in their fields nationwide. Many of its 11 professional schools and academic departments and programs are ranked among the best in the nation. UCLA is a university with the size and scope to allow for unimagined diversity, unmatched breadth and depth of scholarship, and limitless possibility for its 31,600 undergraduates and 14,300 graduate students.

FACULTY, STUDENTS & ALUMNI

Eight UCLA faculty have been awarded Nobel Prizes – the five most recent are Andrea Ghez in physics (2020), J. Fraser Stoddard in chemistry and biochemistry (2016), Lloyd Shapley in economic sciences (2012), Louis Ignarro in medicine (1998) and biochemist Paul Boyer in chemistry (1997). Among faculty there have been 10 National Medals of Science recipients, and hundreds of Guggenheim Fellowships, Fulbright Awards and other academic distinctions. At UCLA, thousands of students extend their education beyond the classroom, working directly with faculty on research projects. Many UCLA undergraduates participate in major research studies, working one-on-one with world-renowned scholars as they discover and create new knowledge. UCLA's alumni are bright stars on the world stage. They include leaders of industry and commerce – Oscar, Grammy, Tony, and Emmy winners; philanthropists and public servants; Olympians and professional athletes; educators, engineers, bankers, and astronauts. Founded in 1934, the UCLA Alumni Association serves 88,000 members, part of the larger network of more than 500,000 UCLA alumni around the globe, with a comprehensive array of services and programs.

BOOKS & TECHNOLOGY

The UCLA Library is ranked among the top academic research libraries in North America with holdings of more than 12 million print and electronic volumes and has over 15 million virtual visitors via the website. From the birth of the Internet at UCLA in 1969, UCLA continues to be a leader in resources for learning. UCLA is nationally recognized for developing ground-breaking computer services for undergraduates and was the first university to have a website for every undergraduate. The UCLA Library is one of the largest student employers on campus, while countless hours are spent providing free research help and writing assistance of students. The university provides an innovative, on-line tool called "myucla.edu," which provides a Web page tailored to each student's academic needs.

OUTREACH & COMMUNITY SERVICE

From its founding, UCLA has been an integral and contributing part of the greater Los Angeles community. Outreach programs and volunteerism are as much a part of UCLA as academics and research, with hundreds of UCLA-sponsored programs providing a wide range of opportunities. Many of UCLA's undergraduates volunteer for these programs, including tutoring youths, adults and incarcerated youths; addressing health and educational needs of underserved communities; combating poverty and homelessness; aiding the elderly and disabled; and providing legal, social, medical and educational assistance to community residents. Through outreach and academic preparation programs, UCLA works with K-12 schools throughout Los Angeles to help greater numbers of students prepare to compete successfully for college. UCLA also partners with community colleges to increase the number of underrepresented students transferring to the university.
Additionally, UCLA faculty, researchers and students provide leadership and public service in health care, law, economic development, social welfare, urban planning, public policy, arts and the environment. Most academic departments have major research projects, field studies or student internships that directly affect people's lives in Los Angeles, the state and the nation.

HEALTH CARE

UCLA Health has been a leader in patient care, medical research, education and community service for more than 60 years. The UCLA health system includes four hospitals on two campuses; more than 160 community clinics throughout Southern California; the David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLA, and the UCLA Faculty Practice Group.

UCLA Health's four hospitals – Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center; UCLA Medical Center, Santa Monica; UCLA Mattel Children's Hospital; and Stewart and Lynda Resnick Neuropsychiatric Hospital at UCLA – are consistently ranked among the best in the nation by U.S. News & World Report. In addition, UCLA's wide-reaching system of primary- and specialty-care clinics offers patients convenient access to the best in health care and the latest in medical technology.

Patients also benefit from UCLA Health's standing as a comprehensive academic medical system, in which physicians and scientists work together to discover new and better ways to diagnose and treat diseases. At the forefront of these efforts is the David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLA. The medical school offers a comprehensive array of research and clinical centers – with such specialized emphases as stem cell and regenerative medicine, AIDS, gene therapy, neurosciences, women's health and geriatrics – that translate research findings into the latest diagnostic and treatment techniques across the broad spectrum of medicine. UCLA Health's mission extends beyond the walls of its hospitals and clinics. Located in one of the most diverse communities in the country, UCLA Health has a wide-range of community health programs designed to prevent and treat adverse health conditions, such as obesity, asthma, cardiovascular disease, and much more. To learn more, visit uclahealth.org.

ARTS

A diverse array of public arts programming makes UCLA the leading arts and cultural center of the West. More than 500,000 people annually attend arts events including theater, music, opera and dance performances, lectures, poetry readings, exhibitions, film screenings, and media arts that are presented by UCLA's two professional arts schools. To learn more, visit arts.ucla.edu and tft.ucla.edu.

CHAMPIONS MADE HERE

UCLA became the first university to win at least 100 NCAA team titles and has secured 34 NCAA Championships in the past 20 years. UCLA currently ranks second in the nation with 120 total NCAA team championships. Over the last 20 years, UCLA's athletic teams have also produced 31 second-place finishes and 145 total top-five finishes. UCLA has also produced an impressive pipeline of Olympians and Olympic gold medal winners, including seven gold medal winners (and 16 total medalists) at the 2020 Olympic Games in Tokyo, Japan. A leader in producing professional athletes, UCLA offers the nation's finest overall combined academic, athletic and career resources for student-athletes.

PRESTIGIOUS DEGREE

Ranked in the top 10 among universities in most academic surveys, UCLA's professional schools rank among the top five in most areas and in the top 10 in others. UCLA has ranked No. 1, nationally, for undergraduate student applications each year since 1999. The school is also among the all-time leaders in producing NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners. UCLA has recently ranked No. 1 among all public colleges and universities, nationally, by U.S. News & World Report and the Wall Street Journal.

HIGHEST QUALITY OF LIFE / BEST PLACE TO LIVE

UCLA's dorm food has been ranked No. 1, nationally, by Business Insider. In addition, Forbes listed UCLA as the No. 4 "best value" university in the publication's rankings in 2019. The campus welcomes 334 days of sunshine per year, with an average year-round temperature of 74 degrees. Situated five miles from the beach, UCLA rests in a thriving campus community of Westwood Village and is surrounded by Bel Air, Beverly Hills, Century City, Brentwood and Santa Monica.

WORLD CLASS FACILITIES

TREMENDOUS SPORT STABILITY

UCLA has Olympic, National and USA Team coaches on its staff and individuals who have trained at the highest level and know how to win. No university can match UCLA's coaching stability in that only two Bruin head coaches have left for another Division I head coaching position over the past 40-plus years.

EXCEPTIONAL ACADEMIC SUPPORT

UCLA features over 20 full-time staff working in academic and student services. This includes academic counseling, learning specialists, life skills coordinators, priority preenrollment in classes, academic mentors, individual and group tutoring, academic awards banquets, lecture notes, a laptop lending program and additional career guidance.

YOUR FUTURE AT THE HIGHEST LEVEL

UCLA serves home to the country's No. 1 Career Center for full-time and part-time jobs. The average personal income for a UCLA graduate with a bachelor of arts degree is $71,000. Likewise, that salary average is listed at $87,000 for graduates with a bachelor of science degree (per Payscale). Student-athletes have access to the "Handshake" program through UCLA's Career Center for networking opportunities. A degree from UCLA means success across the world.

COMPLETE NATIONAL SPORTS MEDIA COVERAGE

Centered in Los Angeles, the nation's second-largest media market, UCLA secures more national and regional exposure than any other university in the country. With multiple daily newspapers, UCLA ranks among the top in former student-athletes in broadcasting, writing, acting, and more. UCLA has ranked No. 1 across all sports in total Sports Illustrated cover appearances. Prominent outlets such as ESPN, Fox Sports, CNN and USA Today have offices in Los Angeles. UCLA's athletic department has inherited additional exposure with the creation of Pac-12 Networks, which broadcasts live Pac-12 events on television and through multiple mobile devices.

TOP TRADITION OF ATHLETIC EXCELLENCE

UCLA features countless athletes with historic long-term success across numerous sports, including stars such as Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Troy Aikman, Arthur Ashe, Natalie Benson (Golda), Gerrit Cole, Jimmy Connors, Brandon Crawford, Lisa Fernandez, Lauren Holiday (Cheney), Rafer Johnson, Jackie Joyner-Kersee, Karch Kiraly, Liz Masakayan, Ann Meyers, Jonathan Ogden, Corey Pavin, Jackie Robinson, Al Scates, Sharon Shapiro, Chase Utley, Bill Walton, and legendary head coach John Wooden. UCLA ranks No. 1, worldwide, in university name recognition.

INTANGIBLES, BEST COLLEGE LOCATION

UCLA's overall success combining prestigious academics, top athletic finishes and tremendous social life cannot be matched by any other university. UCLA has great resources available on a daily basis for our student-athletes to be the best in any area they select. UCLA lives by its axiom of "Champions Made Here," and the university's metropolitan location provides its student-athletes with countless opportunities for growth, development and leadership.

DID YOU KNOW?

Last postseason, Megan Faraimo became the sixth player in UCLA history to hit a home run and pitch in the same Women's College World Series game. Against Northwestern on June 6, 2022, Faraimo struck out the Big Ten Player of the Year Rachel Lewis on a full count and led off the next inning with a solo homer off the Big Ten Pitcher of the Year Danielle Williams.

KELLY INOUYE-PEREZ

The Shelly Carlin UCLA Head Softball Coach

17th Season
UCLA '93

Newly-minted UCLA Athletic Hall of Famer Kelly Inouye-Perez is beginning her 17th season as The Shelly Carlin UCLA Head Softball Coach in 2023 and has an overall record of 723-190-1 (.791) through 16 campaigns. Including her years as an assistant coach (1994-06) and player (1989-93), this is Inouye-Perez's 35th consecutive season in Westwood.

Over Inouye-Perez's 16 seasons as head coach, the Bruins have earned 40 NFCA All-American awards, 81 All-Region honors and 103 All-Pac-10/12 Team accolades. Four of her former student-athletes – Ally Carda, Rachel Garcia, Bubba Nickles and Delaney Spaulding – have represented Team USA on the world's biggest stage at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics.

Inouye-Perez, just the third head coach in UCLA softball history, officially took over the reins from fellow UCLA Athletic Hall of Famer Sue Enquist on Jan. 1, 2007. Enquist announced her retirement as head coach on Sept. 26, 2006.

She is a link to five decades of Bruin softball success, joining the UCLA softball program as a freshman in 1989. Inouye-Perez's time is highlighted by nine NCAA Championships and ten Pac-10/12 titles in her previous 34 years, spending five campaigns as a player and 13 as an assistant coach.

In 2022, Inouye-Perez led the Bruins to a seventh straight Women's College World Series appearance, the longest active streak in the nation. The Bruins posted a 51-10 record and 19-5 record in conference play, finishing runner-up behind Arizona State. UCLA opened its conference schedule to the tune of a 10-0 record for the best start in program history. UCLA's pitching staff was once again the story of the team, leading the conference in every statistical category (1.73 earned run average, 292 strikeouts and 21 shutouts). Megan Faraimo and Holly Azevedo dazzled with a combined 45-8 record to become the Bruins' first pitching duo to each record 20-plus wins in a season in 20 years. Faraimo went on to secure Pac-12 Pitcher of the Year honors while Azevedo was named to the All-Pac-12 First Team. The Bruins' tossed five no-hitters, ranking second nationally, for the program's most since 2002. Three of those no-no's were perfect games, all coming within eight days of each other in March. Faraimo, Delanie Wisz and Briana Perez each earned NFCA All-American nods. Wisz had her coming-out season in her final year in Westwood, boating the Bruins' best batting average (.405), RBI total (63), home run total (16) and slugging percentage (.767). Perez became the first Bruin to win the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year award and was named to her fourth All-Pac-12 Defensive Team. Joining Azevedo, Faraimo, Perez and Wisz with All-Pac-12 accolades were Maya Brady, Savannah Pola and Kinsley Washington, who were all named to the Third Team.

Inouye-Perez earned the second Pac-10/12 Conference Coach of the Year award of her career after guiding the Bruins to their sixth consecutive Women's College World Series and its 11th Pac-12 Championship in program history with a 47-7 record. The Bruins' pitching staff ranked first in the country with 23 shutouts and a 6.25 strikeout-to-walk ration as well as third with a 1.43 ERA. Brady, Wisz, Perez and Rachel Garcia all ranked first in the top 10 in the conference in home runs. Garcia was named the NFCA Player of the Year as well as the back-to-back winner of both the Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year award and the prestigious Honda Cup. Inouye-Perez's staff was honored as the 2021 NFCA Division I West Regional Coaching Staff of the Year. Aaliyah Jordan, Faraimo, Perez, Garcia and Brady were all named NFCA All-Americans, tied for the most of any school.

During the 2020 abbreviated season due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Bruins posted a 25-1 record, with the .962 winning percentage ranking first in the nation. The Bruins were voted the No. 1 team in the nation in the final NFCA, USA Softball and D1Softball polls. As a team, UCLA was also first in strikeout-to-walk ratio (10.52), second in batting average (.368) and earned run average (1.20), fourth in runs per game (7.69), sixth in slugging percentage (.594) and tied for ninth in doubles (45). Faraimo led the nation with a 29.80 strikeout-to-walk ratio, ranked second with 149 strikeouts and was tied for second with 13 victories, earning Softball America Pitcher of the Year honors. In addition, Brady was named Softball America Freshman Player of the Year. (No All-American, All-Region or All-Pac-12 awards were given).

In 2019, Inouye-Perez guided the Bruins to their 13th National Championship and 12th NCAA title. The Bruins never trailed at the Women's College World Series, as Inouye-Perez won her 600th career game in the title-clinching victory over Oklahoma. During their 5-0 run in Oklahoma City, UCLA led the WCWS field in batting average (.310), earned run average (1.84), home runs (12), on base percentage (.392), runs scored (37) and slugging (.574). The Bruins also led the entire NCAA Tournament in average (.317), runs (79), slugging (.548) and homers (18).

Rachel Garcia was named the Most Outstanding Player of the WCWS and was joined on the All-Tournament Team by Aaliyah Jordan, Bubba Nickles and Kinsley Washington. Garcia was also selected as the Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year (Honda Cup), USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year, NFCA National Pitcher of the Year, Softball America and ESPNW POY and Pac-12 Conference Player and Pitcher of the Year. Six Bruins earned All-American status (Garcia - First Team NFCA and SA, Nickles - First Team SA and Second Team NFCA, Briana Perez - First Team SA, Kelli Godin - Second Team SA, Taylor Pack - Third Team SA, Megan Faraimo - Third Team SA, Pac-12 Freshman of the Year). Seven players were also honored on the All-Region and All-Pac-12 teams.

The Bruins, who had 14 comeback victories, went 56-6 and tied for first in the Pac-12 Conference (20-4), UCLA's first league title since 2009. The Bruins finished the season ranked second in ERA (1.43), third in average (.339) and strikeout-to-walk ratio (5.52), fourth in runs per game (7.03), seventh in on base (.416), eighth in slugging (.547), tied for eighth in shutouts (20), 11th in homers (78), 20th in fielding percentage (.974) and tied for 20th in doubles (90).

Inouye-Perez and her staff were named the 2019 NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year, the second time in a decade they earned the award (2010), and NFCA Regional Coaching Staff of the Year (fifth time).

In 2018, the Bruins again advanced to the WCWS, going 58-7 and placing second in the Pac-12 (20-4). The 58 victories, tied for the most in the nation in 2018, were the most for a Bruin team since 2001. UCLA won the first 25 games of the season, was the last undefeated team in the country and had 14 comeback wins. UCLA finished second in the nation in batting (.335), fifth in runs per game (6.32), sixth in slugging (.520), ninth in on base percentage (.404), 10th in homers (68), tied for 10th in doubles (88) and 12th in ERA (1.83).

Garcia was named the Honda Sport Award winner for softball, as well as NFCA, USA Softball and ESPNW National Player of the Year. Garcia was a First Team NFCA All-American, along with Jordan, while Kylee Perez was named Second Team All-American. Seven Bruins were named NFCA All-Region to tie a school record, and six were honored on the All-Pac-12 Teams, with Garcia earning POY honors and Jordan picking up Freshman of the Year and Batting Champion accolades. On Feb. 25, 2018, Inouye-Perez won the 500th game of her head coaching career with a victory over Missouri. In the classroom, the 2018 Graduation Success Rate was at 100 percent, the sixth-straight season UCLA softball accomplished that feat.

In 2017, the Bruins went 48-15 and tied for third in the Pac-12 (16-8). UCLA finished third in the nation in homers (78) and doubles (97) and seventh in slugging (.521). Garcia, the NFCA National Freshman of the Year, was also an NFCA Second Team All-American, with five Bruins earning NFCA All-West Region First Team accolades, as well as All-Pac-12 nods.

In 2016, the Bruins advanced to the WCWS after winning the final two games of the Eugene Super Regional to oust Oregon. UCLA went 40-16-1 and placed second in the Pac-12 (16-5-1). The Bruins led the nation in double plays turned with 45 and also ranked in the Top 31 in five other categories. Three Bruins earned NFCA All-American honors, with Mysha Sataraka and Delaney Spaulding receiving Second Team accolades and Allexis Bennett picking up Third Team plaudits. In addition, six players earned All-Region honors and five were named to the All-Pac-12 Teams. On Feb. 13, 2016, Inouye-Perez won her 400th career game against Wichita State. Inouye-Perez and her staff were named the NFCA West Region Coaching Staff of the Year for the third season in a row and fourth time during Inouye-Perez's head coaching tenure (2010).

In 2015, the Bruins went 51-12, finishing second in the Pac-12 (19-5). The Bruins, who led all NCAA Tournament teams in homers during the postseason with 17, were tops in the country in batting (.367), second in on base percentage (.467), tied for second in doubles (107), fourth in runs scored (7.92) and slugging (.608) and 11th in homers (89). The Bruins set single-season school records in average, slugging, on base, runs, RBI and walks. Four Bruins were named NFCA All-Americans, with Bennett and Ally Carda earning First Team honors and Spaulding and Stephany LaRosa being named Second Team. A school-record seven Bruins were named NFCA West All-Region, while seven were honored on the All-Pac-12 teams, including Carda, the back-to-back Player of the Year.

In 2014, the Bruins recorded the nation's best winning percentage (.867) with a 52-8 record. Inouye-Perez picked up her 300th career coaching victory at Hawai'i on Feb. 8. The Bruins finished second in the Pac-12 (19-5) and tied for ninth nationally, reaching the Super Regional round of the NCAA Tournament. UCLA ranked fourth in the country in slugging and ninth in average and homers per game. Carda and LaRosa each earned First Team All-American accolades, with Carda also being named a Top Three finalist for the USA Softball National Player of the Year Award and Pac-12 Player of the Year. Six Bruins were named All-Region and seven were honored on the All-Pac-12 Teams.

The Bruins posted a 40-20 record in 2013, tying for fifth in the Pac-12 with a 10-14 mark and reaching the Regional Championship game of the Louisville Regional. B.B. Bates was named Second Team NFCA All-American, four were honored on the All-Region squad and six earned All-Pac-12 accolades.

In 2012, UCLA went 36-20 and tied for fourth in the Pac-12 with a 12-12 record. Four Bruins earned All-American honors, tied for the most for any school in 2012, as LaRosa was named First Team, Andrea Harrison and Katie Schroeder Second Team and Samantha Camuso Third Team. Seven were named to the All-Pac-12 Team, including Freshman of the Year LaRosa, while six were All-Region winners.

In 2011, UCLA recorded a 36-19 mark and tied for sixth in the Pac-10 (9-12). Six Bruins were honored on the All-Conference Teams, while Harrison was named First Team All-Region and All-American. Inouye-Perez earned her 200th career victory on March 11 against Sacramento State.

Inouye-Perez led the UCLA softball program to its 12th national title and 11th NCAA Championship in 2010. The Bruins (50-11) went a perfect 10-0 in the postseason, including 5-0 at the Women's College World Series. UCLA set numerous WCWS records, including the most home runs in one tournament with 14. Megan Langenfeld was named the Most Outstanding Player of the WCWS, while Camuso and Harrison each earned All-Tournament honors. Following the season, Inouye-Perez and her staff were honored as the NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year. UCLA set a single-season school record for home runs with 108. Langenfeld and GiOnna DiSalvatore were each named to the NFCA All-American First Team. The Bruins also had three players named to the All-Region Team and eight honored by the Pac-10.

In 2009, she led the Bruins to a Pacific-10 Conference Championship, as UCLA went 45-11 overall and 16-5 in league play. She was named Pac-10 Coach of the Year and earned her 100th career victory on Feb. 22 against Maryland. In 2008, the Bruins went 51-9 and advanced to the WCWS, finishing second in the Pac-10 with a 17-4 record. In her first season at the helm of UCLA in 2007, Inouye-Perez posted a 37-18 overall record and a 12-9 Pac-10 mark (T-3rd).

Over Inouye-Perez's 13 seasons (1994-2006) as an assistant coach, UCLA was 617-150-1 (.804) and appeared in the NCAA title game seven times, winning the NCAA Championship in the 1999, 2003 and 2004 seasons. The Bruins also won three Pac-10 titles during that span (1999, 2002, 2006) and in 2004 were named the National Coaching Staff of the Year by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA).

Inouye-Perez's primary responsibility as an assistant coach was guiding the Bruin pitchers and catchers, a list which includes many of the most honored and recognizable names in collegiate softball. Behind the dish, where Inouye-Perez also starred as a three-time All-Pac-10 honoree during her playing days at UCLA, she helped mold and influence arguably the best catcher in the history of USA Softball in Stacey Nuveman. Under Inouye-Perez's tutelage, Nuveman became a three-time Pac-10 Player of the Year, four-time, First Team All-American and the NCAA's all-time single-season and career home run leader.

Among the other pitching highlights accomplished by the Bruins over her 13 years as an assistant included at least one All-American award earned by a UCLA pitcher in 12 of those campaigns, including Pac-10 Pitchers of the Year Courtney Dale (1999) and Keira Goerl (2003), DeeDee Weiman, four-time Olympian Tanya Harding and two-time Olympian Amanda Freed.

In addition, nearly every UCLA pitching record has been set during the time Inouye-Perez has overseen the Bruin battery and the top five pitchers on UCLA's career wins list, Goerl, Selden, Carda, Freed and B'Ann Burns, were coached by her.

As a player, Inouye-Perez was an exceptionally strong fielder behind the dish for the Bruins. She made her mark immediately as a collegiate player, earning First Team All-Pac-10 as a true freshman and Second Team as a sophomore, leading the Bruins to the 1989 and 1990 NCAA Championships before receiving a medical redshirt in 1991 due to shoulder surgery.

She came back strong in 1992, picking up Second Team All-Pac-10 honors as the Bruins once again won the national championship and finished with a 54-2 record, the fewest losses in a season in program history. Inouye-Perez also was named to the 1992 All-Women's College World Series Team, going 5-for-12 (.417) with four RBI during WCWS play. She wrapped up her career as a fifth-year senior in 1993 with an NCAA runner-up finish. Impressively, Inouye-Perez did not commit a single fielding error during her final two seasons.

Among the UCLA pitchers during her five seasons as a player were Lisa Longaker and Lisa Fernandez, both of whom were named to the NCAA's 25th Anniversary All-WCWS Team. During her UCLA career, Inouye-Perez played in 22 Women's College World Series games, a mark that is tied for third-best in UCLA history behind only Lisa Fernandez and Kristy Howard (23). Inouye-Perez graduated from UCLA in 1993 with a B.A. in psychology and earned her master's degree in physical education from Azusa Pacific University in 2004.

Prior to college, Inouye-Perez was one of the top players during her ASA days, winning four national championships, with the Panthers (1984, '85 and '89) and the Raiders (1986). She also competed on an international level in Japan in 1985 and in Peru in 1987 (Pan American Qualifier) and followed her collegiate career with time playing on the NPF Pro Tour.

Inouye-Perez and her husband, Gerardo Perez, currently reside in Cerritos. Along with Kelly's exploits on the diamond, Gerardo competed as a catcher/DH for Cerritos College from 1988-90 and helped lead the Falcons to the 1989 Junior College National Championship. After a stellar career at Cerritos, he went on to compete at Loyola Marymount, earning First Team All-West Coast Conference honors his junior and senior seasons. He currently teaches health and coaches baseball at Gahr High School in Cerritos. The couple has two children, Michael (23), a former standout on the UCLA baseball team, and Kylie (18). Michael, or "Mikey", drafted in Round 15 of the 2021 MLB Draft with the 459th pick by the Minnesota Twins organization, remains in their farm system.

LISA FERNANDEZ

The Mark Kalmansohn UCLA Associate Head Softball Coach

25th Season
UCLA '95

One of the most recognizable names in the sport of softball, Lisa Fernandez begins her 25th season on the Bruin coaching staff in 2023. Fernandez was named the Mark Kalmansohn UCLA Associate Head Softball Coach on August 10, 2022. In addition to overseeing UCLA's pitching staff, Fernandez also manages the Bruins' recruiting efforts.

This is Fernandez's second stint as a full-time assistant coach for UCLA (1997-99, 2007-present), also serving as a volunteer assistant from 2000-04. In 24 previous seasons with Fernandez on staff, the Bruins have posted a 1,117-240-2 (.822) record and have claimed five NCAA Championships in 1999, 2003, 2004, 2010 and 2019. UCLA has also won Pac-10/12 titles in 1999, 2002, 2009, 2019 and 2021. The program has been honored as the NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year three times in 2004, 2010 and 2019 and NFCA Regional CSOY seven times in 2000, '10, '14, '15, '16, '19 and '21. Arguably the greatest pitcher in softball history, Fernandez has coached nine Bruin hurlers to 20 NFCA All-American awards.

Fernandez's primary coaching responsibilities are in the Bruin bullpen. UCLA has finished top five nationally and first in the Pac-12 in earned run average in all four seasons since taking over the role at the end of 2018. Under her tutelage, Rachel Garcia won two Honda Broderick Cups, three Honda Sport Awards, one NFCA National Player of the Year, one NFCA Pitcher of the Year, two Pac-12 Player of the Years, one Pac-12 Pitcher of the year and two of her three NFCA First Team All-American honors. Megan Faraimo has won two NFCA All-America awards and was honored as Pac-12 Pitcher of the Year in 2022 with the help of Fernandez.

In 2022, UCLA's pitching staff was once again the story of the team, leading the conference in every statistical category (1.73 earned run average, 292 strikeouts and 21 shutouts). Megan Faraimo and Holly Azevedo dazzled with a combined 45-8 record to become the Bruins' first pitching duo to each record 20-plus wins in a season in 20 years. Faraimo went on to secure Pac-12 Pitcher of the Year honors while Azevedo was named to the All-Pac-12 First Team. The Bruins' tossed five no-hitters, ranking second nationally, for the program's most since 2002. Three of those no-no's were perfect games, all coming within eight days of each other in March.

In June 2019, Rachel Garcia put on a performance for the ages in the circle to bring home the Bruins' 12th NCAA title. Garcia started and was the winning pitcher in all five games at the Women's College World Series. Garcia tossed a complete game in four of those contests, including a 10-inning shutout with 16 strikeouts versus Washington which she walked off with a three-run homer to give herself the win. In total, Garcia threw 36 of the Bruins' 38 innings in Oklahoma City.

In November 2013, Fernandez was inducted into the ASA/USA Softball National Hall of Fame, joining Sharron Backus, Gina Vecchione, Sheila Cornell, Dot Richardson and Sue Enquist. A decade prior, she was inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in 2003.

Fernandez is a three-time Olympic Gold Medalist, having helped Team USA to victories in the 1996, 2000 and 2004 Olympic Games. In 1996, Fernandez shined in the United States' 3-1 gold-medal victory over China, recording the final three outs to earn a save. She went 1-1 with a 0.33 ERA in softball's inaugural appearance in the Olympics in Atlanta.

In the 2000 Sydney Games, Fernandez pitched the U.S. to victory in both the semifinal win over Australia and the gold-medal game against Japan. She established an Olympic single-game strikeout record with 25 in a round-robin game against Australia and posted a 0.47 earned run average and 52 strikeouts. In 2004, Fernandez was Team USA's top hitter and pitcher, posting a .545 batting average (12-for-22), which set a new record for an Olympic tournament. For the third-consecutive Games, she was also in the circle for the final out of the gold-medal contest, a 5-1 victory over Australia. Fernandez was selected as an alternate to the 2008 Olympics in Beijing.

In 1999, Fernandez was named the ASA/USA Softball Female Athlete of the Year. As a pitcher and third baseman, she helped the USA Softball Women's National Team to gold medals at both the Pan American Games and the Canada Cup. She also helped the California Commotion win the ASA Women's Major Fast Pitch championship for the fourth consecutive time.

Fernandez played at UCLA from 1990-93 and completed her psychology degree in 1995. A three-time winner of the sport's Honda Award, Fernandez became the first softball player to win the prestigious Honda-Broderick Cup in 1993, given to the most outstanding collegiate female athlete in all sports. A four-time, First Team All-American, Fernandez led the Bruins to two national championships (1990 & 1992) and two runner-up finishes (1991 & 1993). She was also All-Region and All-Pac-10 First Team each season and Pac-10 Player of the Year her final three years.

With a miniscule 0.22 earned run average, Fernandez went 93-7 with 784 strikeouts. Her ERA ranks second in NCAA history and her 74 shutouts are tops at UCLA and tied for ninth in the NCAA annals. In her junior and senior seasons, Fernandez had the lowest ERA in the nation (0.14 in 1992, 0.25 in 1993), sporting a perfect 29-0 mark in '92. She tossed 11 career no-hitters, including a pair in the 1993 Women's College World Series, along with two perfect games. She ranks second in UCLA history in ERA and sixth in wins and strikeouts.

Fernandez was just as powerful at the plate, batting .382 with 15 home runs and 128 runs batted in. She hit .401 in her junior season, but eclipsed that mark by more than 100 points in her senior campaign, batting an NCAA-best .510 with 11 homers and 45 RBI. Fernandez ranks in the UCLA Top 10 in numerous offensive categories, including fifth in hits.

Fernandez and Mike Lujan, who were married in August 2002, have two sons, Antonio (16) and Cruz (9), and reside in Long Beach.

KIRK WALKER

Associate Head Coach

22nd Season
UCLA '88

Kirk Walker begins his 22nd season on the UCLA coaching staff in 2023 and his eleventh year since returning to Westwood on Aug. 7, 2012. Walker was elevated to Associate Head Coach on August 10, 2022.

Walker, who was the head softball coach at Oregon State from 1995-2012, previously was a member of the Bruin staff from 1984-94. In 20 years on the Bruins' staff, Walker has a coaching record of 733-137-1 (.842). UCLA was honored as the NFCA Regional Coaching Staff of the Year in 2014, 2015, 2016, 2019 and 2021. Walker has helped the Bruins to seven NCAA Championships and 17 Women's College World Series appearances across his two coaching stints.

Walker was named co-head coach of the Finland National Team on Sept. 2, 2022. He will lead the team in its quest towards the Los Angeles 2028 Olympic Games.

During the summer of 2017, Walker was an assistant coach on the USA Softball Junior Women's National Team, featuring Bruins Holly Azevedo and Bubba Nickles, which won gold at the WBSC Junior Women's World Championship.

Walker returned to UCLA after spending nearly two decades at Oregon State. The all-time winningest coach in program history and the fifth-winningest in Oregon State history regardless of sport, Walker posted a 594-490-3 record (.548 winning percentage) and eight seasons with at least 40 wins. The Beavers made the postseason 10 times with Walker at the helm, including the 2012 campaign, which saw Oregon State post a 36-23 mark and set team records for runs batted in (269) and runs scored (301). Under Walker's tutelage, the Beavers earned 79 All-Pac-10/12 honors, 28 All-Region accolades and 10 All-American awards.

In 2006, Walker led the Beavers to their first-ever appearance in the Women's College World Series, as OSU posted a school-record, 28-game winning streak and reached No. 5 in the national rankings with a 43-16 overall mark. In 2005, he guided Oregon State (43-16) to its first-ever Pac-10 Championship (and the first regular-season Pac-10 title for any OSU women's sports program), earning Conference Coach of the Year honors for the second time (1999). The most wins in a season for Oregon State came in 1999, when the Beavers had 47 victories and went to the postseason for the first time in program history. Along with his Pac-10 COY award, Walker's staff was named the Speedline Pacific Region Co-Coaching Staff of the Year.

Walker has also earned coaching acclaim away from the collegiate level. He was named one of 12 coaches to form the USA Softball National Team Coaches Pool through the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens. Walker served as an assistant for the USA Elite Team for three summers (2002-04), and also assisted the USA Red National Team during the summer of 2001.

He was the head coach of the four-time USA Women's Major National Champion California Commotion from 1996-1999, and will be head coach of the Commotion again as they start back up in the National Pro Fastpitch league in the summer of 2020.

In addition, Walker was named the Most Valuable Pitcher in the summer of 2015 after winning his first National Championship as a player at the NAFA Men's Masters 40 and over National Championships in Carson City, Nevada. He claimed his second National Title in the summer of 2019 and was named to the All-World Team for the sixth time.

Walker spent 11 years at UCLA from 1984-94. The Bruins won National Championships six times with Walker on the staff ('84, '85, '88, '89, '90 and '92).

He earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from UCLA in 1988. The Woodland Hills, Calif. native has an adopted daughter, Ava, with his ex-partner. A visible and vocal advocate for diversity and inclusion in sports across the country, he is one of the founders of the Equality Coaching Alliance and the LGBT Sports Coalition. Walker also serves as a founding board member for the non-profit Sports Equality Foundation along with being the chair of the UCLA Athlete Allies committee for UCLA Athletics.

Volunteer Assistant

1st Season

Will Oldham was hired as a volunteer assistant coach on the UCLA softball staff in September 2022. Oldham has seven years of high school softball coaching experience in the Palm Springs area as well as travel ball coaching for two years. He has also coached UCLA softball summer camps in previous seasons.

Oldham specializes with the Bruins' slappers hitting group as well as defensive infield and outfield drills. He previously played with associate head coach Kirk Walker on their men's fastpitch softball team as a pitcher and shortstop for three years.

Oldham, 36 years old, was born in Indio, California.

CLAIRE

Director of Operations

8th Season
UIC 2011

Claire Donyanavard enters her eighth season working with the UCLA softball program in 2023. She begins her ninth total year for UCLA Athletics.

As the Director of Softball Operations, Donyanavard is responsible for all internal operations for the softball program and serves as a liaison between the coaches and department administrators. Donyanavard is involved in the day-to-day operations of the team, including finances, travel, meals ticketing, housing, financial aid, alumni meetings and parking.

Donyanavard spent three seasons with the UCLA gymnastics team from 2017-19 operating in the same role. Prior to UCLA, Donyanavard was the director of operations at Occidental College's softball program.

During Donyanavard's tenure at UCLA, the Bruins have made seven Women's College World Series appearances and won the NCAA title in 2019.

A native of Saugus, Calif., Donyanavard played four years of softball at University of Illinois-Chicago. She earned her bachelor's degree in creative writing with a minor in gender studies and sociology at UIC in 2011. She later earned her master's degree in business administration with an emphasis on sports management from Long Beach State.

KAITLYN GUSTAFSON
Staff Athletic Trainer
3rd Season
SUNY Buffalo State '15

Gustafson enters her third year in the UCLA athletic training office and her third season as the athletic trainer for the UCLA softball team.

In her current role, Gustafson handles all day-to-day athletic training responsibilities and oversees multiple sports medicine interns. Gustafson also splits athletic training duties with UCLA's cross country program.

Her tasks include planning student-athletes' daily physical rehabilitation, monitoring return-to-play progression and performing physical treatments. Gustafson is also on-site for every Bruins' practice.

Prior to arriving in Westwood, Gustafson was an athletic trainer at the University of Maryland for two-and-a-half years from 2018-20.

Gustafson was previously a Master's of Athletic Training student at Daemen College, graduating in 2018. During her time at Daemen, she worked with athletes from the football and wrestling teams at the University of Buffalo, men's soccer and men's basketball at Daemen College, and Nichols High School. Most notably, Gustafson was a staff member at the 2018 NHL Combine in Buffalo, New York. Upon graduation she received the Sue Roque Award, which is given to a graduating student in the athletic training program who exemplifies excellent clinical skills.

Gustafson also completed a program in the Dominican Republic in January of 2019 that helped educate former Major League Baseball players and coaches about injury prevention in youth baseball athletes. Due to the success of the program, the training now occurs on an annual basis and continues to educate coaches in the Dominican Republic.

In 2015, Gustafson graduated from the State University of New York at Buffalo earning a bachelor's degree in health and wellness with minors in exercise science and coaching. During her four years, she was also a student-athlete with the women's lacrosse team.

Gustafson has been a member of the National Athletic Trainer's Association (NATA) since 2016 and is currently CPR/AED certified.

Gustafson is a native of Endwell, New York.

ADAM GARNER

#1 DOT RICHARDSON

Notes on Dot Richardson

Dot Richardson (1981-83) was UCLA's first three-time NFCA All-American award winner, taking home the award in each season of her Bruin career. Richardson finished her career with a .349 batting average in 135 games played, amassing 164 hits, 22 doubles, 10 triples and two home runs. Each year from 1981-83, Richardson was the team-leader in batting average, runs scored, hits, slugging percentage, total bases and on-base percentage.

Richardson helped UCLA to its first NCAA Championship in 1982 as the team's shortstop. That season, she paced the Bruins in batting average (.328), hits (45), doubles (8) and runs scored (17).

Richardson was the one of three Bruins to compete for Team USA in the Olympic Games in 1996 — the first year softball was showcased at the event — and brought home the gold for the Americans. Richardson went on to win a second gold medal in the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia.

#2 GINA VECCHIONE

Notes on Gina Vecchione

Gina Vecchione (1980-82) was a member of UCLA's first NCAA Championship team in 1982 as a player and a three-time NCAA Champion as an assistant coach, helping the Bruins to back-to-back titles in 2003 and 2004 and another ring in 2010. Vecchione compiled a 609-160-1 (.792) record in her 13 seasons as an assistant coach.

Vecchione was an NFCA All-American in 1982 in the UCLA outfield. In that championship season, she recorded a .253 batting average in 42 games played with 38 hits, three triples and a team-best 12 runs batted in.

As an assistant coach, Vecchione helped produce 39 NFCA All-Americans and 64 all-conference selections. Vecchione was inducted into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame in 2017 and American Softball Association Hall of Fame in 1997. She is the current associate head coach at Cal Poly.

#6 SUE ENQUIST

Notes on Sue Enquist

Hall of Fame Coach Sue Enquist compiled a 484-119-1 (.802) record in her 10 seasons as the Bruins' head coach from 1997-2006 and an overall mark of 887-175-1 (.835) in 18 seasons of coaching, serving as co-head coaches with Backus from 1989-96. Enquist's .835 winning percentage leads the NCAA charts for Division I softball head coaches. Enquist led the Bruins to six national titles (1989, 1990, 1992, 1999, 2003, 2004) and seven Pac-10 Conference titles.

A three-time Pac-10 Coach of the Year (1995, 1999, 2006), Enquist was named National Coach of the Year by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) three times in 1992, 1995 and 2004. She also led coaching staffs that were named NFCA Regional Coaching Staff of the Year in 2000 and NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year in 2004. Enquist coached 60 All-Americans during her 18 seasons as head coach and seven Honda Award winners, including Natasha Watley, who became the second softball player in UCLA history in 2003 to earn the Honda-Broderick Cup, given to the most outstanding collegiate female athlete in all sports.

Enquist was either a player or coach on 11 UCLA national championship teams, including the program's first as a member of the AIAW in 1978 when she was the tournament's leading hitter.

#9 LISA LONGAKER

Notes on Lisa Longaker

Lisa Longaker (1987-90) was a three-time NCAA Champion for the Bruins (1988, 1989, 1990) and UCLA's first two-time winner of the Honda Award for Softball in 1988 and 1990. Longaker, a three-time NFCA First Team All-American, is a fixture in UCLA's record books, ranking fifth all-time in earned run average (0.40), eighth in career wins (89), fifth in complete games (96) and shutouts (61), sixth in innings pitched (725.2) and 10th in strikeouts (698).

Longaker tossed five no-hitters in her career, including the ninth perfect game in program history vs. Arizona State on April 7, 1990. Longaker's 31-win season in 1988 is tied for eighth-most in a single season by a Bruin pitcher. Longaker helped bring home UCLA's fourth NCAA title in 1988 with a seven-inning shutout — her 23rd of the season — against Fresno State in the championship game.

Longaker led the Bruins with a 31-4 record and 240 strikeouts over 259.1 innings pitched that season. Longaker became the sixth member of the UCLA softball program to be inducted into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001.

#14 JANICE PARKS

Notes on Janice Parks

Janice Parks (1986-89), a two-time NCAA Champion for the Bruins in 1988 and 1989, became UCLA's third Honda Award winner in 1989. Parks finished her career a three-time NFCA First Team All-American with a career .352 batting average in 215 games played, 224 hits, 104 runs, 32 doubles, 21 triples, 11 home runs and 136 runs batted in.

In her first national championship season in 1998, Parks hit a team-best six home runs and knocked in 40 RBI. Parks doubled in Stacy Sunny and Lorraine Maynez in the championship game versus Fresno State to score the game's only two runs.

Parks led the Bruins in RBI in each of her four seasons on the team with a career-best 41 coming in 1987. Parks became the 12th member of the UCLA softball program to be inducted into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame in 2015.

#16 LISA FERNANDEZ

Notes on Lisa Fernandez

Lisa Fernandez (1990-93) is widely considered one of the greatest softball players of all-time. As both a player and coach, Fernandez has been a part of seven national championships – two as a player and five as an assistant coach. While on the staff, Fernandez has posted a 1,117-240-2 (.822) record.

Fernandez finished her collegiate career as one of the most decorated athletes in the sport's history as a two-time NCAA Champion (1990, 1992), a three-time Honda Award winner (1991, 1992, 1993), a Honda-Broderick Cup winner (1993), a three-time Pac-10 Player of the Year and one of three Bruins to be named a four-time NFCA First Team All-American.

Fernandez led the 1990 national title team with a 0.25 ERA while ranking second on the squad with a .310 batting average. In 1992, Fernandez was masterful at both the plate and in the circle with an NCAA-best 0.14 ERA and an undefeated 29-0 record. Fernandez was second on the team with a .401 batting average while leading the team with 71 hits and 47 runs scored. In the championship game versus Arizona, Fernandez threw a complete-game shutout with six strikeouts. Fernandez, an American Softball Association and UCLA Athletic Hall of Famer, was a three-time Olympic Gold Medalist for Team USA.

#17 DEBBIE DOOM

Notes on Debbie Doom

Debbie Doom (1982-85), a three-time NFCA All-American, powered UCLA to its first two NCAA Championships in the circle with two extra-inning shutout victories in the championship games versus Fresno State (1982) and Texas A&M (1984).

Against the Bulldogs, Doom sent down 12 batters on strikes over eight innings, and against the Aggies, Doom struck out another 15 in an astounding 13 innings. She gave up a combined seven hits in both games.

In UCLA's record books, Doom is tied for third in earned run average (0.29), third in strikeouts (952) second in shutouts (66) and sixth in innings pitched (725.2). Doom threw eight career no-hitters, including five perfect games. Three of those perfect games came in the 1985 season. Doom struck out a program-record 25 batters in a single game in three separate outings.

Doom led the Bruins in innings pitched, complete games and strikeouts in each season of her career, including a career-best 282 strikeouts in 1984.

Doom was the first member of the UCLA softball program to be inducted into the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame in 1995. Doom was also listed to the NCAA 25th Anniversary Team as well as the 1980s All-Decade Team.

#42 JACKIE ROBINSON (retired across campus)

UCLA retired number 42 across all sports in honor of Jackie Robinson in November of 2014. Robinson was a four-sport letterwinner at UCLA from 1939-41 who later broke the color barrier in Major League Baseball, playing for the Brooklyn Dodgers. In Nov. 2014, UCLA had three student-athletes (none playing men's basketball) who were wearing number 42, and those three individuals wore the number until their collegiate careers concluded. UCLA's athletic department has permanently displayed Robinson's iconic number 42 inside each of its athletic competition venues.

The Nov. 2014 announcement came in conjunction with UCLA naming a series of 22 athletic and recreation facilities as the Jackie Robinson Athletics and Recreation Complex.

During his time at UCLA, Robinson starred on the football field, the basketball court, the baseball diamond and the track. Playing for the basketball team, he twice led the Southern Division of the Pacific Coast Conference in scoring. Robinson registered 12.4 points per game (12 league contests) in 1940 before averaging 11.1. points per game (12 league contests) in 1941.

As a football player, Robinson led the nation in punt return average in 1939 and 1940 (16.5 yards per return in 1939, and 21.0 yards per return in 1940). As a senior for the Bruins in 1940, he led the team in rushing yards (383), passing yards (444), total offense (827 yards), scoring (36 points) and punt return yards (21.0 yards per game). Through two seasons, he rushed for 954 yards and passed for an additional 449 yards.
